Break Bulk Handling

We provide an unrivalled range of logistics solutions which includes bulk and break-bulk logistics, custom clearance, vessel coordination, stevedoring, Anchorage Discharge, barging, trans-shipment, onshore cargo handling, mechanized bagging, warehousing, Road/Rail Logistics across India, Site Management and end to end customized logistics solutions best suited to the needs of our clients.

Exhibition Cargo Handling

Max's Exhibition Cargo can pick up your meeting materials at your door. If the logistics require using special transportation and facilities to expedite the exhibition materials, Max will provide a complete study of route/transport recommendations and pricing analysis.

From your door to the event site, from 1 box to palletized cargo and full containers, Max provide freight forwarding, customs clearance, delivery to the event site and once the event is finished, we can recover your materials and ship them back to your door or next show destination.

Custom Clearance

Over the years, we have cleared all types of shipments, both major and minor, for a variety of goods from across the world with utmost precision. Being leading customs clearing agents our expert team does a proper study of all local rules and regulations so that they can help you overcome even the most complex matters of trade compliance. We identify the demands, challenges, and hurdles for your business and help you arrange your paperwork accordingly so that day-to-day formalities are met and business flows smoothly.

Our in-depth knowledge and understanding of this sector have helped us offer customized solutions to all of our clients so that they can reduce lead time, optimize cash flow and minimize customs duties. With the required documents, our team of dedicated professionals ensures end-to-end solutions for both Import Customs Clearance and Export Customs Clearance in the most cost-effective manner.

Consolidation Services

The Freight Consolidation Services for shipments are the cost effective way to transport low volume cargo. By grouping your shipment with others to fill a standard container, you avoid the cost of shipping an entire container on your own.

Cargo freight consolidation is more than a cost-effective supply chain solution. The consolidated shipments receive the same benefits as full container load shipments with our world class logistics team, global network and local experts at every destination.

We consolidate the package of a single buyer from different suppliers in one single container and deliver it to full container load. This reduces the cost one single person have to pay for the freight forwarding.
